

When it snows in Nashville, some streets and hills may be too hazardous for driving. For your safety, WeGo Public Transit has developed snow route detours on some routes to avoid icy streets.

Please note, not all routes have planned snow route detours.

Safety is the top concern during inclement weather, and emergency changes may be required based on operating conditions. To find out if snow route detours or reduced service levels are in effect:

- Check local news;
- Visit WeGoTransit.com to view maps and specific route information;
- Follow us on X, Facebook, or Instagram;
- View electronic signage at WeGo Central;
- Check transit apps for real-time info; or,
- Call Customer Care at 615-862-5950.

When indicated, the following routes will have detours for inclement weather. Please see the inside of this document for details of each route's snow detour.
