

Week of April 21, 2019 Transit Ride Guide

The week of April 21st will prove to be an exciting and memorable one due to the events coming to Nashville, most notably being the NFL Draft and the St. Jude Rock 'N' Roll Marathon. We put this ride guide together to help our regular riders and guests to the city use transit as efficiently and effectively as possible.

This will be a dynamic week where things may change on the fly, so make sure to stay up to date by following us on Twitter or Facebook (@WeGoTransit), joining our emailing list at bit.ly/WeGoEmail, and by checking in on our website at WeGoTransit.com for service advisories. Our representatives are also ready to assist you in planning your ride. Give them a call at 615-862-5950.

General Travel Tips

We strongly recommend riders get on and off buses at WeGo Central. We understand this may require additional walking, but it will ensure you catch your bus with minimal confusion.

Street availability can change at any point in time. We advise riders to board buses at stops before and after the detours or at Central. Buses will pick up and drop off passengers at any designated bus stops along a detoured route provided safe operations are maintained. We encourage riders to refer to the Transit App on their mobile devices for more specific detour information.

Purchasing your Fare/Ticket

Bus Fare Purchases

While all buses are equipped for payment once onboard, doing so will slow down buses and lead to extra travel time. We encourage riders to purchase passes in advance at WeGo Central Customer Care Window and Ticket Vending Machines (TVMs).

Train Ticket Purchases

Due to the month-long closure of Riverfront Station, all train riders are advised to purchase their fares in advance or at the following locations:

- WeGo Central Customer Care Window and Ticket Vending Machines (TVMs);
- Kroger locations in Donelson, Hermitage, Mt. Juliet, and Lebanon;
- City Halls in Mt. Juliet and Lebanon; and
- TVMs found at all outlying train stations.

This ride guide lays out train and bus services by dates. April 27 is a particularly busy day so please review carefully.

April 26

Train Service

No trains on April 26 will be held past their regularly schedule times to accommodate bus connections. Star riders will board from a temporary platform located at Ascend Amphitheater. Bus shuttles for those who unable to board the last departing train at 5:55 p.m. will use buses at Korean Veterans Boulevard and 1st Avenue.

- To access the temporary platform at Ascend Amphitheater, riders must take Demonbreun, Molloy, or Korean Veterans Boulevard to access the platform.
- Buses at Korean Veterans Boulevard and 1st Avenue will depart at 6:25 p.m., approximately 30 minutes after the last train.
- These supplemental buses will take riders to all outlying stations, including those in Wilson County. Those living within Davidson County may also take Route 6 Lebanon Pike to the Donelson and Hermitage Stations when necessary.

April 27

Train Service

Riders who purchased tickets for the special event trains on Saturday, April 27 for the St. Jude Rock 'N' Roll Marathon and Toast of Tennessee Wine Festival will receive an email notification about how their train service will be affected by the downtown closures with instructions for boarding activities.

WeGo staff will be available to provide additional assistance to get passengers to where they need to go during this week.

Bus Service

We strongly recommend riders get on and off buses at WeGo Central if they are in the Transit Impact Zone indicated on the map. Those outside of the impact zone should refer to route descriptions below. We understand this may require additional walking, but it will ensure you catch your bus with minimal confusion.

Due to the impact of these events bus operations on all bus routes will be detoured. We are unable to reliably instruct riders on boarding locations inside the Transit Impact Zone. Riders are instructed to board at WeGo Central if they are within the Transit Impact Zone.

Note: If your route is not included in the detours below for Saturday, April 27, please refer back to detours outlined for April 24-26.

Riders on Routes 72, 76, and 77 will not be impacted by these events. These routes will run as normally scheduled.
